So the order was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Duke, seconded by two other members that voted in the majority, moved to reconsider the vote of the house upon the order just rejected;

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ridgely, moved to amend said order by striking out 'Federal' which amendment was accepted by Mr. Hardcastle;

Mr. Boyd, moved to lay the order on the table;

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Crisfield moved that said order be rejected;

Mr. Alexander, moved to lay the order on the table;

Determined in the negative

The question then recurred upon the motion of Mr. Crisfield to reject the order;

Mr. Alexander, called for the previous question, that is 'shall the main question be now put?'

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, will the house reject said order,

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Taylor,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows,
