Sixth. Your trustees next offered for sale a lot of wood land containing fifty acres three roods and twelve square perches of land more or less situated in said Frederick County being the same which Ludwick Rentzelm died seized and possession: the said tract of land was divided into eleven lots and was offered separately first and the bids received, the bids being received per lot amounting to the gross sum of sixteen hundred and sixty six dollars and sixty two cents, as announced by the trustees, whereupon said bids for said lots were held and your trustees with a view of obtaining the very best possible price for said land then offered the said tract of land as a whole and sold said tract as a whole to Gideon O. Your Trustees upon making up their report of sales found that they had made an error in the calculation of one of the individual lots, which in truth and in fact made the individual bid received more than the amount bid by Gideon O. Hane to whom said land was knocked down to, and your Trustees therefore hesitated to make such report to your Honorable Court, it was discovered afterwards that the printer has made an error in advertising Lot No. 2 by transposing some figures which made a difference of thirty four dollars and eighty seven cents or making the total amount of sales at the individual bid of seventeen hundred and eight dollars and forty nine cents. Your Trustees obtained from your Honorable Court under a petition filed a decree to have said lot of wood land resold as a whole after advertising same for at least three weeks in some newspaper published
