No. 7425 Equity.

Order of Publication

and is duly recorded in Liber T. G. No. 12 folio 145, one of the land Records of Frederick County, and is particularly described in said bill and exhibit No. 1 thereto.

That the said Margaret Donald left surviving her a husband James Donald who has since married and whose wife's name is Annie R. Donald both of whom reside in Frederick County, Maryland and the following named children as heirs at law, viz: An adult son James Rice, residing in the town of Pennsboro, Ritchie County, State of West Virginia, an adult daughter Margaret Donald, residing in Frederick City Maryland an adult daughter Juliet Donald, residing in Frederick City, Maryland an adult daughter Annie Gertrude Murray, who departed this life since the death of her mother and left surviving her a husband, John J. Murray, and the following named children (infant) as her heirs at law, a son John Donald Murray a daughter Mary Margaret Murray and a daughter Annie Gertrude Murray all of whom reside in Frederick City, Maryland, an adult daughter Juliet Donald, residing residing in Frederick City, Maryland, an adult daughter, Annie Gertrude Murray who departed this life since the death of her mother and left surviving her husband John J. Murray, and the following named infant children as her heirs at law, a son John Donald Murray, a daughter Mary Margaret Murray and a daughter Annie Gertrude Murray all whom reside in Frederick Maryland, Frank Donald an adult son who is unmarried and resides in Richmond, State of Virginia Purver Donald an infant son, who resides in Richmond, State of Virginia.

That defendant, the Frederiktown Savings Institution a body corporate re holds a mortgage on said property for the sum of $3500.00 dated October 21st 1891 which said mortgage is still due and unpaid.

That the real estate above described descended to and vested in the parties aforesaid as tenants in common subject to the payment of the mortgage aforesaid and the interest of the said James Donald and that it is not susceptible of partition or division amongst the parties without loss and injury and that it would be to the best interest and advantage of all the parties interested to have the same sold and the proceeds divided.

The bill as amended then prays for the following relief, that a decree may be passed for the sale of the property and that the proceeds be divided amongst the parties according to their respective interests and right and for general relief.

For subpoenas against the resident heirs to answer said bill and for an order of publication against the non resident heirs mentioned in said bill as amended who are parties defendant to this suit.

It is thereupon on this 27th day of November 1901 ordered and adjudged by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity and by the authority thereof that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Frederick County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 26 day of December 1901 give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to be and appear in this Honorable Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 12th day of January 1902 to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Douglass N. Hargett. Clerk.

Filed Nov. 27. 1901.