

whole on the, 256; again, 256; 261; 268; 277; 288; 297; committee report the bill with sundry amendments and are discharged, 297; bill †, ib; considered, 315; postponed, 316; considered, 324-5; amendments proposed in relation to the day of holding election, and negatived, 325; Mr. Eccleston proposes an amendment in relation to the ratio of delegation, 325; amendments proposed to said amendment, 325-6-7; the said amendment as amended negatived, 327; various other amendments proposed to the bill, 327-8-9; 330-1; bill further considered and postponed, 335; consideration resumed, 343; Mr. Gough proposes to amend it in relation to the election of senate, 348-9; consideration resumed—Mr. Alexander proposes an amendment to Mr. Gough's proposition, 357-8; Mr. Handy's substitute, 358; negatived, ib; Mr. Alexander's amendment negatived, 358-9; question divided and taken on striking out the 5th section as moved by Mr. Gough, 359; decided to strike out 360; 375; question on filling the blank resumed, 376; amendment proposed and withdrawn ib; consideration resumed, 386-8; Mr. Gough's amendment adopted, 388; the first section of the bill reconsidered, with the view of changing the number of delegates from Anne Arundel county, and striking out the one from Annapolis, which is agreed to, 388; attempts to change the number from Washington negatived, 388-9; from Allegany, negatived, 389;—Mr. Primrose's amendment recognising the Eastern Shore veto on future amendments, proposed and negatived, 389; motion to reconsider that vote, negatived, 390; Mr. Kerr proposes to amend by making senators ineligible after serving for five years, 390; which is negatived, 390-1; the vote reconsidered, 391-2; and an amendment slightly modified to the same effect, adopted, 392-3; further proceedings on—an amendment relative to the relation of master and slave, proposed and adopted as the 9th section, 393; Mr. Primrose proposes a 10th section, which is negatived, 393-4; Mr. Buchanan proposes a substitute for the 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th sections, 394-5-6; which is negatived, 396; Mr. Crisfield proposes a substitute for the 10th, 11th, 13th and 14th sections, 396-7-8; consideration resum-