

sumed, 400-1; Mr. Crisfield's amendment negatived, 401; Mr. Townsend offers an amendment, providing to elect the Governor alternately from the Eastern and Western shores, 402; which is negatived, 402-3; Mr. Boyd proposes to strike out "alternately from the Eastern and Western Shores" from the 10th section, 403; which is negatived, 403-4; various amendments and proceedings on, 404-5-6; Mr. Fooks proposes a clause recognising the right of the Eastern Shore to secede, 406; Mr. Primrose offers a substitute therefor, and Mr. Alexander proposes to amend the clause so as also to recognise the right of the lower Western Shore counties, ib; the original proposition, substitute and amendment rejected, 406-7; other amendments proposed, and proceedings on, 407; the bill passed 408; preamble and resolution offered by Mr. Fooks, declaring it to be negatived because not passed by a majority of two thirds, according to the reserved rights of the Eastern Shore, proposed 410-1; order referring said preamble and resolutions, and to retain the reform bill until a report is made hereon, proposed and adopted; 411; Mr. Usilton and Mr. Shaws vote on the reform bill noted, ib; the vote of Messrs. Hemsley and Price noted, 420; Mr. Culbreth from the committee to whom Mr. Fook's resolution was referred, report that the bill does not "particularly relate to the Eastern Shore,"—427-8-9—430; Mr. Handy dissents from the report, 430; report concurred in, 430-11; the bill sent to the senate, 443; Mr. Duke's vote on the passage of the bill noted, 446; the vote of Messrs. Nicols and Bruce on its passage noted, 458; bill returned from the senate with amendments, 574; proceedings on, ib; message proposing a committee of conference on the bill, proposed and *, ib; rule suspended in order to take the amendments up for consideration, 614; motion to postpone negatived, 617; various amendments and proceedings thereon, 617-8-9—620-1-2-3-4-5 6; Mr. Bringle proposes to amend by inserting provisions relative to the appointment and tenure of office of clerks and registers, 626-7; which are rejected, 667-8; Mr. Richardson proposes an amendment providing for calling a convention on the constitution, 629—630; proceedings on—the