

with foreign powers in behalf of the tobacco trade, proposed, 143-4; * 145; considered, passed and sent to the senate, 156; returned assented to, 164; see Tobacco.

United States; preamble and resolution, proposing to request the, to have a survey of the navigable rivers immediately above Watkins' Point, and of so much of Tangier Sound as connects with said river, with a view to improving the navigation, &c. proposed, 198-'9.

Preamble and resolutions declaring that the law of 1833, commonly called the compromise act, should be observed inviolate and in good faith—that the Public Lands are the property of the States, and that no distribution of them ought to be made in which all do not equally participate—that after the necessary wants of the government are provided for, to prevent the accumulation of large sums in the treasury the surplus ought to be distributed, quarter annually, amongst the States, &c. and requesting the senators and representatives in Congress to urge measures in accordance herewith &c. proposed, 207-8.

Preamble and resolutions recommending the immediate recognition of the Independence of Texas, and instructing our Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote accordingly, proposed, 208-9.

Preamble and resolution urging our senators and representatives in Congress to take under their especial care this highly important interest, and to oppose all and every reduction of duties on coal proposed, 259-'60; referred to the next General Assembly, 718.

Message proposing to go into the election of a Senator, received from the senate, 27; reply assenting thereto, proposed, assented to and returned, ib; the ballot—the result—John S. Spence declared elected, 29; message proposing that a joint letter apprising him thereof, received from the senate, 31; reply assenting thereto proposed, assented to and returned, 32; Mr. Spence's reply accepting, 91.

Message proposing to proceed to ballot for a Senator of the, for six years from the 4th March next, and nominating John S. Spence, proposed, assented to and sent to the senate, 368; reply received acceding thereto, 372; the ballot taken and result announcing his election, 375; resolution requesting the Governor to issue a commission accordingly, received