

Baltimore and Reisterstown Turnpike Road between Baltimore city and Pikesville;”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Stirling submitted the following amendment:

“Section 10. That this act shall cease and be void unless the said railway be built and put in actual use to Pikesville in two years from the first day of March next;”

Which was read and adopted.

The bill entitled, “A Supplement to an act to incorporate the Frederick and Emmittsburg Turnpike company;”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, “An Act to refund to Thomas Sudler a sum of money erroneously paid into the Treasury;”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, and referred to the committee on Finance.

The bill entitled, “An Act to amend the 56th article of the General Laws, relating to licenses, requiring the sheriffs of Baltimore city and the several counties to report an alphabetical list of persons required to take out licenses;”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, “An Act to add sections to article four of the Local Laws, relating to ‘Mortgages;’”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, “An Act to authorize the Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city to employ a stenographer;”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, “An Act to allow John T. Diffenbaugh, Jacob Campbell and S. R. Gore, late collector of Carroll county, further time to complete their collections;”

Was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, “An Act to repeal section 191 of article 1 of the Local Laws, relating to witnesses in Allegany county;”