

first interrogatory is or is not fairly and truly set down therein as by you so deposed to, and whether the facts therein set down as having been deposed to by you, are or are not true as therein set down. If they are not true, or fairly set down, please state in what particulars they are not, and correct the said deposition, so that it shall truly represent your knowledge and the whole truth in the premises?

Deponent—Read it last night and answers in the affirmative in all its parts.

Cross-examination declined, for reasons previously stated.

Rev. Mr. Maier.

To 1st interrogatory—Were you or not examined, as a witness, in the city of Baltimore, in the month of December last before Daniel Myers, a justice of the peace for said city, by and on behalf of the parties contesting the election of delegates to the House of Delegates of Maryland, and cross-examined on behalf of the sitting members touching certain occurrences at the polls of the 3rd ward of the city of Baltimore, on the 2nd day of November, 1859?

Deponent saith—He was.

To 2nd interrogatory—Look at the deposition printed in the volume here shown to you and entitled “Contested election cases, in Baltimore, November 2nd, 1859,” commencing at page 46. Please state whether you have read the same, and if not, please read the same and tell the committee whether what you deposed to at the examination referred to in the first interrogatory is or is not fairly and truly set down therein as by you so deposed to, and whether the facts therein set down as having been deposed to by you, are or are not true as therein set down. If they are not true, or fairly set down, please state in what particulars they are not, and correct the said deposition, so that it shall truly represent your knowledge and the whole truth in the premises?

Deponent—Has read it and answers in affirmative in all its parts.

Cross-examination declined, for reasons previously stated.
