Deponent answers—He was.

To 2nd interrogatory—Look at the deposition printed in the volume here shown to you and entitled “Contested election cases, in Baltimore, November 2d, 1859,” commencing at page 183. If they are not true, or fairly set down, please state in what particulars they are not, and correct the said deposition, so that it shall truly represent your knowledge and the whole truth in the premises.

Deponent answers—I have read it and I would state that my evidence as therein set down, is substantially true, I believe as true as I could make it from my recollection of the facts, not expecting to be called upon to give an affidavit of the facts. I would also state that as some correspondence has taken place in the Sun, between Mr. Eshbaugh and myself, and the Rev. Mr. Clarke, President of Loyola College, as to certain questions put to him by Mr. Eshbaugh questioning his right to vote; and that I am convinced that my testimony was substantially correct. Wm. H. Norris and C. Hughes Armistad, Reform challenger, were present and have since confirmed my statement.
