

Q. How did you vote?

A. I voted the Democratic ticket, and always have.

By Mr. Gordon—Q. You say you saw nothing there to obstruct voting?

A. No sir, not whilst I was there.

Q. You were there a very short time?

A. About 20 minutes.

Q. There was a barricade in front of the window?

A. There was.

Q. Was there any crowding in front of the barricade?

A. No sir, nothing more than common. People were standing about it.

Capt. John S. Hebb sworn.

By Mr. Alexander—Witness. I am 30 years of age and my occupation is that of a pilot. I reside in the third ward, and have done so for three years. Before that, I resided in the first ward. I was a voter in that during Mayors Wright and Swann's election. I was at the third ward polls at the election held on last November, between 10 and 11 o'clock, and remained up to 11.

Q. What did you see there?

A. I saw a great many gentlemen there.

Q. Was there any fighting?

A. None at all, sir.

Q. Any unusual degree of crowding and pushing at the windows?

A. There was not. I voted with as much ease as ever I voted in the city of Baltimore in my life.

Q. Were any parties engaged in keeping voters from the polls?

A. There was a barricade there, and I went up the alley and retired from the barricade.

Q. You saw no effort made to intimidate voters?

A. Not while I was there.

Q. How did you vote?

A. I voted a split ticket, probably the American ticket; I am a Democrat by principle, but not a Reformer; I have always voted against the American party up to this election; the Democrats had no candidates, and I picked my own candidate.

Q. Do you belong to any of the political clubs?

A. I do not. I have always been a Democrat, and always expect to be one.

By Mr. Freaner—Q. Did you vote the American ticket with the hope that your interests as a pilot might be promoted?

A. I was not biased in the least. Such a thing as that never came into my head at the time.
