

as on Federal Hill and the twentieth ward, I was unable to get to more than twice.

Q. From what you saw on these different visits to the polls, what is your opinion as regards the order and regularity observed throughout?

A. My opinion is, that the election would compare favorably with any election previously held in the city of Baltimore and I thought in many instances it surpassed it for quietness.

By Mr. Gordon—Q. What did you say Mr. Levy was doing? Was he keeping Mr. Wallace and Mr. Brown quiet?

A. I saw Mr. Levy tell these gentlemen that they did not wish any disturbance there.

Q. Were they making any?

A. I don't know that they were, but they were charging that they were voting parties who were not entitled to vote there.

By Mr. Freaner—Q. You have heard a good deal about violence at that election?

A. I have.

Q. Taking it for granted that every thing you heard was true, what would be your opinion of the election?

Objected to by Mr. Hagner, and question not pressed.

Witness—I think I can say that I saw quite as much of the election as any man in the city of Baltimore did.

By Mr. Freaner—Did you hear any guns fired?

A. I heard the report of fire arms.

Q. Were they guns or pistol reports that you heard?

A. I don't know which.

Q. Did you see any omnibuses driving around the wards?

A. I saw an omnibus driving around through the streets.

Q. Did you see Ras Levy in any of them?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see any hard cases there?

A. I did.

Q. Do you know what they were there for?

A. I have my suspicions.

Q. Did you see any of them vote?

A. I saw some go toward the tenth-ward polls.

Mr. Freaner—You did not relate that in your testimony in chief.

Witness—I cannot recollect everything, sir.

By Mr. Morgan—Q. Did you see any illegal voting?

A. I did not, of my own knowledge.

Q. Did you hear any firing?

A. I heard some firing.

Mr. Freaner—Q. Was it guns or pistols?

A. I should judge it was pistols; I saw one gentleman fire a pistol at the corner of Holliday and Fayette streets, a few
