No. 7271 7712, Equity.

Ethel Gertrude Fitzpatrick are single with their parents and that they have no children, Marion and there is no children of any deceased child.

5 That the said Mrs. Catherine Goode is the mother of the said Mrs Fitzpatrick. Trust Goode, and under said will is entitled to receive annually the sum of $500. and the said sum is a charge laid on the estate of the said three children, but in consideration of the matters and things hereinafter set forth and desirous to afford purchasers the opportunity of obtaining a good and perfect title free and discharged from her said annuity or rent charge she has voluntarily become a plaintiff to these proceedings so that your Honorable Court would be able to pass, and which she now prays your Honors to pass together with any other decree herein a decree discharging and forever releasing the said estate of said three children from all and every claim lien or charges of said annuity or rent charges, and the said estate or estates may be conveyed assigned or transferred free and absolutely as if said annuity or rent charge had never been created.

6. That all of your orators and oratrices and their children are interested in "Louis McMurray Packing Company" of Frederick City Maryland and it is to their best interests, and to the benefit and advantage of the infants in remainder, and children of Mrs. Fitzpatrick to follow the location of the said Louis McMurray Packing Company: that for reasons known to all the complainants herein, among which may be stated, the excessive continued drought year after year in this locality, the failure on that as well as on other accounts to obtain a full supplay of material and products from the farms to meet their demands for goods from the trade, made it obligatory for the said company to look elsewhere for the location of its plant and the company on its operations and after visits made for the purpose of selecting a suitable place suitable by climate and soil, and for the production of such goods required by said company. It has made its selection
