No. 7271 Equity.

in the north eastern part of Wisconsin. That the inducements to the Company the profitable advantage given it, and the rights proceedings and exemptions granted to it together with the fertility of the soil of its surrounding country and the nature and products of the same makes this Selection an eminently proper and advantageous one and of the greatest interest and benefit and advantageous one an advantage to the life tenant and her Children and to all parties an interest.

7 Your Complaints aver and charge that in view of the matters and things set forth in the preceding paragraph that they are one and all making preparations to remain from this Country and take up their future and permanent home in the State of Wisconsin that as soon as the property may be disposed of they will be ready to leave. but they are now retarded by the trust estate mentioned aforesaid and the undivided interests therein That the said estate is not susceptible of division among the parties in interest therein without great loss and damage, and that the only relief they may obtain is by their coming to this of your Honorable Court that it is necessary for your Honorable Court in order to save the complainants from great loss and damage, as well to themselves individually as in a representative character, and more particularly so, to prevent any loss or damage to the infants in this Cause all these Complainants aver and so allege and charge that it will be to their best interests, benefit and advantage of all the parties in interest: and more particularly so to the great benefit and advantage of the infants in this Cause. That your Honorable Court appoint a trustee or trustees for the purpose of selling and conveying any part or all of the estate herein mentioned subject to sale either by public Auction or private sale at such times and from time to time as in the judgment of your said Trustee or Trustees so appointed by said Court may deem to be the most advantageous and to the best interest of the parties concerned and especially to the benefit and advantage of the infants