No 7850 Equity.

is a fair and reasonable one & as much as it could be expected to bring. I look at Exhibit #2 to the Bill. it is a Certified Copy of the Mortgage. Two Shillings of the interest on Said Mortgage has been paid up until March 27 1904 at the rate of $189.00 yearly. The Mortgage is overdue and that is the rate of interest paid and I am willing the Same amount of interest Should be paid for the Current year.—

ans

Oliver M. S Fogle I am 22. years of age & I reside in this County I know all the parties to this Cause. except Some of the judgement Creditors of George R. Stone. I know the farm in question it was agreed to be Sold to Pinkney A Richardson by George A Stone acting as agent for the owner. last Spring for the Sum of $5200.00 this price is a fair and reasonable one and it would be to the best interest and advantage of all the parties especially the infant Defendants that the Court Should ratify and Confirm this Contract of Sale to Mr Pinkney A. Richardson. I was farming the land in question at the time this Contract of Sale was made, and had been farming it for a year before it was made. I was living on an adjoining place and farming this one also — George R. Stone had been living there but he moved away last Spring. when Mr. Richardson moved there April 5" 1904. Mr Richardson got possession of the house. of the garden three truck patches. the Barn & the other necessary buildings I. Claimed the right under my tenancy to farm the land for the year succeeding April 1st. 1904. and did So dividing the Crops. giving to Mr Richardson. one half which was the Landlords Share of them. he received one half of the wheat Crop his Share of it being about 217 Bushels He Sold it to Mr Cover at Fort Road And directed me to deliver it to him there and I did So. he Sold it for about one dollar per bushel: He received about 49 barrels of good Corn as his Share of that Crop. the Short One
