No 7788 Equity

for Swanke & George for Oil; and J. E. Philing. I guess, between $50. & 60 dollars. Dr. A. G. Corine and E. S. Willard and Carroll Elgin.
These bills were all made before the applied for the Bankrupt Law He dealt with them at the same time he dealt with me He owed the London Dry Co a small bill, and I Can't just remember all that he did owe He would tell me each month that he could not pay me much because he would have to divide his money around with his other Creditors. The last payment he made me was in June 1902.

4. Int — Look at Exhibit D. Now shown you and state what the same is?

Ans. — It is a Certified Copy of a deed Conveying Lot No. 58 in C. M. Wenner's Addition Brunswick to his wife Sarah E. Fahrney in Consideration of $50.00 & love and affection this was the same property that Robt E. Fahrney obtained from C. M. Wenner and others by deed dated Nov 11. 1891. of which Exhibit C. is a Certified Copy. Said Lot No. 58 being located on third Street — Brunswick in Frederick County Maryland I did not know anything about the transfer until the past few months.

5 Int — What was the value of that property on May 8, 1902?

Ans — About $800.

6 Int — What other property had Mr. Fahrney at that time and what other property he had if any?

Ans — That is the only piece of property I have ever known him to have.

7. Int — Has Mr. Fahrney ever applied for the benefit of Bankrupt law?

Ans — He has. A Certified Copy of his Adjudication is herewith filed Marked Exhibit "E"

8, Int — Where did Fahrney and his wife live at the time of the Conveyance of the property to her May 8th, 1902.

Ans. — On the property in question and are still living there. There has been no change of possession so far as outsiders could observe. There was a small Mortgage on the property to the Real Estate & Imp. Co payable in instalments which has been considerably reduced.

9 Int — Who has been making the payments on this Mortgage both before and since the Conveyance to