George on or before May 8 - 1902?

Ans. He was to the amount of $15 23/100

3. Qt. When did you or your firm discover that Fahrney had conveyed his real estate in Brunswick to his wife?

Ans I did not know it until last week and I then asked Mr Swant and he had not heard of it. - If he or Mr. George had heard of it before I would have been told by them, as such matter are always discussed in 4 Qt Did your firm continue to sell goods to Robert N Fahrney after May 8th 1902.

Ans It did for about two months & file herewith a Statement of his indebtedness to our firm with day and date that the purchases were marked Exhibit "P.&G." This amount is still due and owing.

5 Qt Have you obtained judgments on this account?

Ans We have not because he went into Bankruptcy and we thought it was no use to sue

6. Qt What property if any, had Fahrney besides this house and lot - Brunswick?

Ans None to my Knowledge except his household goods, which is not worth more than his exemption.

7 Qt What is the real estate that he conveyed to his wife worth?

Ans From $450. to $500= I do not Know exactly what condition the property is in as I have not seen it for some time it might bring more than that.

8th Where have Robert N Fahrney and his wife lived for the past several years?

Ans On the property mentioned in these proceedings since the property has been built which I think has been about 10 years ago. There has been no apparent change of possession during that that time

9 Qt Have there been any tangible property of Robert N Fahrney since May 8. 1902. when he conveyed his house and lot in Brunswick to his wife, out of which Swant & George or any other creditor of Fahrney could have made their claim?

Ans None to my Knowledge. I live in Brunswick know Mr Fahrney quite well and know his property.

(Cross Examination waived)

To the Gen Qt by the examiner.

Ans. That is all I know.
