

Robert N. Martin, of Baltimore city, to be Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, until the next (1861) general election of Delegates.

John Spear Smith, of Baltimore city, to be Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city, in place of Edward D. Kemp, who declined to qualify.

For St. Mary's County.

William O. Reeder, to be Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court, in place of Joseph Spalding, resigned.

For Kent County.

John McDaniel, to be Notary Public, in place of Robert A. Stam, deceased.

For Baltimore County.

Joseph Tyson, Inspector and Wood-Corder, in place of Henry D. Morris, resigned.

For Calvert County.

John H. Basford, to be Judge of the Orphans' Court, in place of Thomas R. Tongue, resigned.

For Frederick County.

P. M. Engelbrecht, to be Notary Public at Frederick city.

B. Amos Cunningham, to be Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court, in place of William Lowe, deceased.

For Harford County.

Daniel Kendley, to be Lumber Inspector at Havre-de-Grace.

John Blaney, to be Lumber Inspector, in place of Woodhouse, resigned.

Everett G. Hughes, to be Lumber Inspector, in place of Jarrett Spencer, resigned.

For Baltimore City.

John Guyton,
Henry J. Carroll,
William Hayne,
Wesley Woodland, to be Inspectors of Manure.

William B. Lewis, to be Auctioneer.