No 7788 Equity.

34 Int — Have Elgin $10.00 for liquor?

Ans — I have got no account of it. He claims it that is all I know.

35 Int — What was the bill owed Horine for?

Ans — You will have to ask him. He put the bill in?

36 Int — Was it for Liquor?

Ans — You can't buy Liquor then unless you are sick

37 Int — Is it not true that in your application for the benefit of the Bankrupt law filed Aug. 19, 1903, set forth in a Schedule of debts which you owed on then named as creditors and the amounts that I have named as a part of the debt which you owed?

Ans — That is what they claim but I don't know them.

38 Int — The most of these debts were contracted by you a year or two or more before you made application for the benefit of the Bankrupt Law?

Ans — I have not dealt with them since.

It had to be before that.

39 Int — Was it a year or two or more before?

Ans — A year or more

40 Int — It was a little while after you got the deed from Mr. Mercer was it not?

Ans — I can't tell you just when it was now.

To the Gen Int } by the Examiner.

Ans — Nothing only those bills are not correct.

R. N. Fahney.

Sarah E. Fahney one of the defendants a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the defendants being duly sworn and examined deposes and says:-

1st Int — When and how much money did you get from your grand-mother estate?

Ans — I don't know exactly when but it was in 1891 or 1892 It was $120.00 in all my grand mothers name was Lydia Stuntz. She lived and died in Bedford County, Pa. and the property was in that County. when the farm was sold. I got the money and that is all I know.

2d Int — What did you do with that $120.00

Ans — I gave it to Mr. Fahney my husband.

3 Int — Did you have any understanding with him when you gave it to him? (Except to)

Ans — Yes Sir. with the understanding that the home in Brunswick would be mine.

4. Int — When did you and your husband come to this understanding Except.