Joseph H. Hays
vs
George Smith and others } No. 8086. Equity. In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity.

To the Honorable, the Judges of said Court:—

The Report of Sale of Eugene L. Rowe, Hammond Urner, Trustees appointed by decree of your Honorable Court in the above entitled cause to sell the real estate therein decreed to be sold, respectfully show:—

1. That after having filed their bond with approved Sureties as provided by said decree, and after having given three weeks notice of the time, place, manner and terms of Sale by advertisement inserted in the Emmitsburg Chronicle, a newspaper printed in Frederick County, and by handbills circulated and posted, they attended at the Emmit House in Emmitsburg, Frederick County, Maryland, on Saturday, December 1st, 1906, at one, P.M., being the place and time of Sale mentioned in said advertisements, and then and there sold at public sale, subject to the dower of Annie Smith, widow of Jacob Smith, the real estate decreed to be sold, consisting of a farm of Seventy-nine acres of land, more or less, situated about one-fourth of a mile north of Emmitsburg in said County, and described in these proceedings, at and for the sum of Two Thousand and Four Hundred and Thirty Dollars, to Rev. John S. Murray, he being there and then the highest and best bidder therefor, upon the terms of Sale prescribed by said decree, as will appear by his acknowledgement of purchase herewith filed marked "Exhibit" J. S. M.;

2. That your said Trustees report the gross amount of said sale at $2430.00.

And as in duty bound,
Eugene L. Rowe
Hammond Urner
