NO. 8131 Equity.

her said Will. I know all these parties to this deed, of the same grantees in the deed Annie Eliza Wilson is still unmarried and lives in Frederick County, Maryland; Viola J. Wilson intermarried with Millard F. McBride, and she, together with her said husband, also resides in Frederick County, Almira Wilson intermarried with William D. Reeser, both of whom reside in Lansdowne, Baltimore County, Maryland, Florence Wilson, whose proper name was Emma Florence Wilson, was my wife, and died at the time I have already testified: Olivia Wilson mentioned in said deed, whose proper name is Julia Olivia Wilson, is still single and resides at Lansdowne; Albert J. Wilson is married, his wife's name being May Wilson; and Charles A. Wilson is also married, his wife's name being Sallie J. Wilson.

While I have not seen the farm described in Exhibit "B" for some little time, yet from my past knowledge of it, I would consider a sale of this farm for $3700.00 a fair sale, and I believe it would be to the advantage of all the parties if the same were ratified and confirmed by the Court. I also believe that the sale of the mountain land mentioned in "Exhibit "B" at $12.00 an acre is a fair sale.

Q. Look at "Exhibit le" now shown you and state what it is?

A. I look at Exhibit "le" now shown me, it is a note dated March 20th 1900, payable twelve months after date to the order of John J. Wilson for $150.00, with interest from date, given by me and my wife, Emma F. Corwin. This promissory note was given by my wife and I, with the understanding that it was to be an advancement to my wife upon her interest in the farm mentioned in Exhibit "B", and it was further understood that she was to pay no interest upon this note but that when the farm was sold, it was to be taken off her share of the proceeds of the farm.

The note has been assigned to Annie E. Wilson and should be paid out of my wife's interests
