ing the Condition of the property, and I further believe that it would be to the interest and advantage of said infant, Joseph Corwin, as well as all of the parties having an interest in said land to have said Sale ratified and Confirmed by the Court and a trustee appointed by the Court to among the interests of all the parties in said farm and mountain lot to the purchasers thereof.

My Sister, Emma F. Corwin and her husband Daniel J. Corwin by note date March March 30th, 1900, payable twelve months after date to my order for the sum of one hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150.00) borrowed from me the said sum of $150.00. While this note on its face bears interest from date, yet in truth and in fact it was not to bear interest at all, but the sum of money recited by said note, namely: ($150.00) was to be in the nature of an advancement to my said sister Emma upon her interest in the property mentioned in Exhibit "B", which sum of money was to be deducted from her interest in said property when it was sold. This note assigned by me to my sister Eliza who paid me the money for it, on behalf of herself and the other owners of the said farm. I look at "Exhibit B" now shown me, and it is the said note, I know all the circumstances connected with this transaction, and it is as I have stated, the amount of this note, $150.00 should now be deducted from the share or portion of my deceased sister, Emma F. Corwin, as that was the understanding with her when the loan was made.
