No 8185. Equity

of said real estate their respective interests and residences are as follows: The said Charles E. Renner an adult who is unmarried and resides in said Frederick County, a one seventh undivided interest. Virginia E. Lutz, an adult whose husband's name is John H. Lutz both residing in said Frederick County, a one seventh undivided interest, Sarah A. Renner an adult who is unmarried and resides in said Frederick County an undivided one seventh interest. Mary E. Grossnickle an adult whose husband's name is Leonard A. Grossnickle, both residing in said Frederick County, an undivided one seventh interest: William E. Renner an adult whose wife's name is Drusilla Renner both of whom are now residents of the State of Maryland and reside in the State of Ohio, an undivided one seventh interest: Rose Ann Salina Renner an adult residing in said Frederick County, an undivided one seventh interest.

(6th) That the real estate above described of which the said William Renner died seized and possessed and which descended to and vested in the parties aforesaid as tenants in common as aforesaid, is not susceptible of partition or division amongst the parties entitled thereto with great loss, damage and injury to them, and it would be to the best interest and advantage of all the parties concerned and especially of the infant heir to have the said real estate sold under a decree of this Honorable Court, and the proceeds divided amongst, or invested for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto according to their respective interests and rights.

To the end therefore,

(1) That a decree may be passed for the sale of the real estate of which the said William Renner died seized and possessed mentioned and described in paragraph I of this Bill of Complaint and Exhibits A, and B. filed herewith.

(2) That the proceeds arising from said sale may be distributed amongst the parties entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests, the share of said infant to be invested for her benefit as by law provided.

(3) That your Complainants may have such other and further relief as the nature of their case may require
