Leonard Greenwicke, a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Plaintiffs having duly been affirmed deposes and Says:-

I Knew William Renner in his lifetime, he died in 1881 intestate. I married one of his daughters Mary Renner, and we are two of the defendants to this Cause.

William Renner died Seized of the property and real estate described in the Copy of Deeds Exhibits A. and B. it is worth in and about $1000=.

It Consists of a two Story dwelling house Frame Stable, out house and hog pens and Consists of a little are of 3¼ acres of land.

I heard the testimony of Charles E. Renner given in this cause and his testimony as recited by him is true. Concerning the property and the description he gave of the Children of William Renner is Correct as given.

This property Cannot be divided among the parties entitled, nor in fact Can it be divided at all. It would be to the interest and benefit of all the parties to have the property Sold and especially would be to the interest of the infant Minnie Bidle, and the proceeds divided to their respective interests. To the Gen Int. Nothing More

Leonard A. Greenwicke
