So the amendment to the amendment was rejected.

The speaker announced that the hour had arrived for taking up the order of the day.

Mr. Brown moved to postpone the order of the day, Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Grason then moved to amend said amendment as offered by Mr. Townsend, by adding at the end thereof the following—"Provided, that no new county shall be formed on the Eastern Shore, or in any part of the State, unless the convenience or necessity of the people, or the purposes of justice require it,"

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Selby, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:—
