Ogborn also had another daughter, Maria Farquhar, who was my mother. She died about 1848, intestate leaving three children, viz:— (1) the fourth witness. (2) Charles H. Farquhar, who is still living and is unmarried and (3) Annie E. Farquhar who intermarried with John H. Sullivan and died intestate about 1899, leaving two children viz:- Elizabeth E. Cecil now the wife of Smith Cecil and Gertrude Runnel, now the wife of Henry Runnel. I am the wife of Harriet C. Lough, my Co-Plaintiff who is still living. my father Joseph ~~Farquhar~~ died in 1864. Elizabeth Farquhar, was the wife of John Farquhar. Her died in 1861. and she about 1898, intestate and without leaving any children.

Ephraim Ogborn died intestate about 1865. and without children, never having been married.

Ann Ogborn died intestate about 1902. she died without leaving any children, never having been married

William H. Ogborn died in January 1906. leaving a will, which I am the acting Executrix. He left no children, and never having been married.

All of the said parties now living are parties to this suit and all over twenty one years of age

Wm. H. Ogborn died seized and possessed of the land described in Exhibit No. 2. ten about four acres conveyed to N. H. Denny Jr. by deed, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit No. 3. and in which he had an undivided interest along with myself, my brother Charles H. Farquhar and Elizabeth Cecil and Runnel. This property was his home place where he resided at the time of his death, and consists of about 84 acres of land including about 3 acres conveyed to said Wm. H. Ogborn, by deed, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit No. 4. in this case.

Wm. H. Ogborn also died seized and possessed of about 30 acres of land described in Exhibit No. 5. in which he had only and undivided interest along with myself, my brother Char. H. and Mrs Cecil and Mrs. Russell.

The exact proportion of interest of the respective are ascertainable from the testimony and Exhibits in this case.

Neither of the said two parcels of land are capable of division among the parties in interest without loss and injury to them

When Hiram Ogborn died he left as his only heirs at law his before mentioned brother and sister viz in this case of my mother, Maria Farquhar who was then dead, and I and my brother Char.
