No. 8079. Equity.

H. and my Sister Annie E. inherited her share

When Ephraim Ogborn died he left as his only heirs at law his surviving brother Wm H. Ogborn and his sisters Elizabeth Farquhar, and Annie Ogborn and the children of his sister Maria my mother before mentioned.

When Elizabeth Farquhar died she left as her only heirs at law her sister Ann Ogborn, her brother Wm. H. Ogborn and the said Children of her deceased Children Maria Farquhar.

When the said Ann Ogborn died she left as her only heir at law, her said Brother Wm H. Ogborn and the witness and the said Charles H. Farquhar, Children of the said Maria Farquhar the said Annie E. Farquhar, wife of John H. Sullivan, having previously died leaving the said Elizabeth Cecil and Gertrude Annie as her only Children, who were the grand nieces of the said Ann Ogborn.

The said Wm H. Ogborn deposed of his interest by his will of which Exhibit No. 1. filed in this case is a copy.

To the Gen. Int. by the Exam.

Ans. Nothing that I can think of.

Susanna M. Hough.

Mary N. Randle A Witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Plaintiffs being duly sworn and examined, vivâ voce deposes and says, as follows:-

My name is Mary N. Randle; my age about 60 years; I live in New market Md. I know all the parties to this suit I was acquainted with the Ogborn and Farquhar families from my earliest Childhood.

I have heard the testimony of the preceeding witness and believe that the named time of death and relationship of the parties therein mentioned, are correctly given.

I know the parcels of land mentioned in the testimony of the preceeding witness, the same can not be divided among the parties interested therein, without loss and injury thereto especially because some of the interests are of such smaller fractional parts.

To the Gen Int. by the Examiner.

Ans I do not.

Mary N. Randle