No 8223. Equity.

as fully as I could myself do if living. and to place on interest the proceeds of sale for the support of my children: and should it become necessary. then. and then only to use such part of the principal for their support as may be necessary: I further will and direct that if my husband should marry again. he shall forfeit all right and claim to share in the home for my children. but he will be required to pay such rent for it as any children's. Guardian may think is right. to help to clothe the little ones. I further will and direct that when my youngest child becomes of age if the children all desire it. the home left for them. as well as any other property I may have. may be sold. and the proceeds of sale. as well as any other money that may come to me hereafter. I desire to be divided equally. share and share alike among my children. Charles Marion. Clarence Eugene. Isabella Stone. John Lewis Riehl. and Leonora Celia Miller. The Money which I now have in Bank I leave to Isabella Stone and Leonora Stone Miller. my daughters before named. in equal shares. our interest for them. only to be drawn if necessary to clothe them. The money is in Isabella's name and is to be drawn by nobody but her.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal. this sixteenth day of May One Thousand eight hundred and eighty three.

Lydia A. R. Miller. (Seal)

Signed. sealed published and declared by Lydia A. R. Miller. the above named testatrix as and for her last will and testament. in the presence of us. who at her request, in her presence. & in the presence of each other. have signed our names as witnesses thereto.

Edward M. Sutire
Henry H. Franke
F. Werkheiser.

In making a change in the Guardian for my children I feel as though I ought to explain why I did it the Money I expected to get to have them out off the Money their Auntie Bess intended to leave them their Aunt Annie got and kept from them therefore I do not think her a fit person to appoint over them and have taken my Sister Mrs. Clara Louisa Fox. instead. June 11-1886