So the house refused to refer said bill to the committee on the constitution.

Mr. Simmons moved to refer said bill to the committee on grievances and courts of justice,

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Carpenter moved further to amend said bill by inserting in the first section, after the words "justices of the peace," the following—"of the orphans court, county commissioners, justices of the levy court, justices of the magistrates courts."

Which was read.

Mr. Giles moved to amend said amendment by adding at the end thereof the following—"and the judges of Baltimore city court,"

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Williams, said amendment was amended by striking out the words "of the orphans court."

The question then recurred upon the amendment as amended, and Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Giles moved further to amend said bill by striking out in the 2d section thereof the following—"or in any other situation of profit or trust, any law, custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding."

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Williams, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:—
