No 8211 Equity.

to my Aunts Ida E Raphael and Caroline Drinkhouse and to my Uncle Albert Drinkhouse.

Fifth. Immediately after the death of my said mother and after said house on West Church Street in said Frederick City shall have ceased to be maintained as a home as herein provided, and not before, I direct my executors and trustees to give the personal property in said house as follows:-

To Harriet Stewart, my brass Samovar Set, my China Cavalier plaque with two candle sticks attached, my mahogany dining room table, and all my blue india China.

To Ida E. Raphael my india vase which came from Uncle James Long, my small Choisonnee vase given me by Captain Alex Bodisco my three blue and white Dresden cups and saucers my corner cupboard, and my grand piano.

To Marie Stewart Gorgell, my tall brass candle sticks to hold seven candles, my little brass candle stick to hold nine candles, my gilt fraunyellicas, my red enamel russian tea caddy, my inlaid marquetrie sewing table, and my Sheffield plate urn, sugar bowl, and cream pitcher.

To my Uncle Adam T. Drinkhouse, the set of furniture which came from my Uncle James Long.

To Henrietta Pigman Maulsby as a remembrance of me, the black China faience de Gien dish, with lions head at each end which was bought at the Philadelphia Centenial, the two russian scenes view of St Petersburg, and the Academy of art, and my blue Choisonnee vase.

To Mary T. Maulsby, my shorter brass Candlestick to hold seven candles.

To Emily N. Maulsby my five dresden cups and saucers colored black, green, yellow, pink and magenta.

To my friend Hellen Baughman the etching Lady Teazle, the water color copy of Greuze's the broken pitcher, and my cut glass pitcher now in my corner cupboard.

To Susan H. Garrott, the oil painting the bay of Naples, in a broad gilt frame.

Upon and immediately after the death of My Mother I direct my trustees and executors to give the following articles to the following named persons.

To my Aunt Harriet Stewart, my turquoise and Pearl fan brooch, my topaz and diamond ring, my russian silver bracelet inwreiled enamel, and