So the amendment was rejected.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the order as offered by Mr. Alexander, and Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Maulsby moved to suspend the rule for the purpose of taking up the report submitted by him on Saturday last, from the special committee, in relation to the demand of the Executive of Pennsylvania upon the Governor of Maryland, for the surrender of Nathan S. Bemis, Jacob Forwood, Edward Prigg and Stephen Lewis, citizens of Maryland, as fugitives from justice,

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Dawson obtained leave to bring in a bill, entitled, an act supplemental to an act, entitled, an act supplemental to an act limiting the time for the collection of fees of attorneys, solicitors, clerks, registers, sheriffs, and other officers of this State, passed at December session 1836, ch. 73,

Ordered, that Messrs. Dawson, Beam and Kerr report the same.

The speaker laid before the house the following communication from the Treasurer of the Western Shore:

WESTERN SHORE TREASURY,
Annapolis, 8th January 1838.

The Honorable

the House of Delegates of Md.

Gentlemen,—In obedience to your order of the 2d inst. he has the honor to report, that eight hundred dollars were paid out of the treasury for the last year, to the trustees of academies in Baltimore county, viz:

To the Trustees of Garrison Forrest Academy,	$2 0
of Franklin Academy,	200
of Saint James Academy,	200
of the Manchester United Academy,	200

The donations of those academies became payable 25th January.

That to the Manchester United Academy was, for 1837, paid 27th January 1837, and in future will be paid to the Trustees of Gownstown Academy in Baltimore county, in pursuance of ch. 304 of 1836, passed 21st March, 1837.

Most respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

GEORGE MACKUBIN,
Treas. W. S. Md.
