

Resolved, That the said agent be instructed to suggest the anxiety of this State, that some concurrent legislation shall be had by the States of Pennsylvania and Maryland, for the inforcement of their reciprocal obligations to surrender, each to the other, fugitives from justice and fugitive slaves, and that the said agent be authorised to communicate with the Governor or the Legislature of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be expedient, and appear to be the best calculated to advance the purposes of his mission.

Resolved, That the expenses attending the execution of the foregoing resolutions, and the employment of such additional counsel as the Executive of this State shall deem expedient to employ in defence of the aforesaid prosecutions, shall be defrayed out of any unappropriated money in the Treasury.

Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, will the house adopt the substitute as offered by Mr. Sollers,

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred upon concurring in the report of the committee, and

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Alexander,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Tuck, Speaker	Denny	Maulsby
Hopewell	Jones	Boon
Ford	Adams	Jump, of Car.
Crane	Frazier	Gallagher
Welch	Evans	Mann
Gale	Simpers	Swingley
Higgins	Bowie	Witmer
Simmons	Coombs	Griffith
Sollers	Harrison	White
Duke	Wilmer	Dawson
Kent	Townsend	Neff
Beall	Byser	Blocher
Hughes	Geyer	Huddleson
Orrick	Ent	Boyle, of Car.
Ely	Cramer	Barrett
Turner, of Balt.	Forwood	Powder—50
Kerr	Nelson

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. McDaniel	Iglehart	Alexander—4
Brown

So the report of the committee was concurred in.

The blanks in the message recommended by the report of the committee having been filled by the chair, with the names of Messrs. Maulsby and Alexander.