No. 8178. Equity.

Martha A. Trundle, Emma V. Trundle and Henry H. Trundle, who is married to Bertha Trundle.

Q. Now take Horatio Trundle the other Son of Horatio — is he dead or living?

A. He is living in Loudon County, Virginia, and is married but I do not know wife's first name.

Q. Now take Hezekiah W. Trundle, the next Son of John L. Trundle. — when did he die?

A. Very shortly after the war: I know he was living during the Civil war.

Q. Whom did he leave surviving him as his heir at law.

A. His four children, Horatio, Emily Ann, who married John Holland, Eleanor, who married James O. Trundle, and Elizabeth who married Mercer Jones. Eleanor and her husband James O. Trundle are both dead. She left but one child James E. Trundle who is married to Kate B. Trundle. Elizabeth married Mercer Jones and died leaving only one child, Lloyd Jones who is married to Eleanor B. Jones.

Q. Mr. Gott, we have in this bill, one of the children of Hezekiah W. Trundle referred to as being named Eliza. — you say her name was Elizabeth?

A. Yes; she is the one that married Mercer Jones.

Q. What children, if any, did Perry L. Trundle have?

A. Six; James T. Trundle, who is married to Elizabeth Ann Trundle: Susan E. Who married John Peter Bonic, now deceased and died leaving only one child, Lillie Stevens, who married John Stevens. She had other children but they died without issue, before their Mother died. Lillie Stevens, the daughter who survived her, is now dead leaving only one child, who is a minor and is named Lillie Stevens. Perry's next child was Mary Ida, Hickman to Thomas H. Hickman; the next is John H. Trundle, Married to Carrie B. Trundle: the next is William B. Trundle, married about three months ago to a Miss Offutt, and the next was Robertus, Trundle — Six in all. Robertus died intestate about the year 1888, leaving no issue, but leaving a widow, Margaret B. Trundle, who lives in Montgomery County, Maryland.

Q. What about Nancy Trundle, daughter of John L.?

A. She died many years ago. She married a man named Spinks, but left no children or other descendants surviving her. She died, intestate.

Q. How about Sallie Trundle, daughter, of John L.?

A. She married Mr. Bonic and died years ago. She died intestate, leaving as her sole heirs at law her four children
