No. 8473. Equity

erty shall be vested in them so long as they each shall live, to revert to him again at their death or should my daughters aforementioned Mary, after the marriage of the last, the property may be sold and equally divided among my three children before named, or otherwise disposed of to their mutual satisfaction, and should my aforementioned children Charles J. Mary A. and Sarah E. Little, as I foresee they may mutually agree to a change of residence, I hereby enjoin and make it obligatory upon them to apply faithfully the proceeds arising from the sale of the property above given devised, and bequeathed to them, in joint and equal right so long as they shall remain unmarried, to the purchase of a home in some more desirable locality, upon which they shall agree, and to hold such home, thus purchased, subject to the same conditions above enjoined relative to the property above given devised and bequeathed, and should my children above given, devised, and bequeathed to them, I enjoin it upon them individually to bestow upon their father Jesse M. Little, all the care and attention that filial duty will prompt as due to his increasing years and infirmities; and lastly, to prevent misapprehension from the conditions before imposed, I desire each of my children hereinbefore named to keep in mind, that, though his or her right to one third of the property above given devised and bequeathed to them, may be suspended by a marriage, it is not intended thereby to prevent their ultimate disposal thereof, according to the dictates of their own individual, will and pleasure.

I give devise, and bequeath to my daughter Sarah E. Little, my stove and clock, and devise all the residue of my personal property, whatsoever to be as equally divided as may be, between my daughters Mary A. and Sarah E. Little.

And I do hereby constitute and appoint my husband, Jesse M. Little, to be sole executor of this my last will and testament, and request that he be allowed to act, without the customary bond.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty second day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty one.

Sarah her + mark Little /Seal/

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by Sarah