Lambright, mentioned in the petition, is a person now. compos mentis. of unsound mind, and a lunatic and incapable of taking care of her person and property, or not, in the usual form of such inquisition and that he make return of his proceeding therein to this Court. and that such inquisition be made At Frederick

John A. Lynch
Judge of the Circuit Court.

Writ de Lunatico inquirendo.

Maryland Sct:
The State of Maryland,
To John Swadner, Sheriff.
of Frederick County, Greeting.

Because we have received information that Nancy N. Lambright of Frederick County, now is, and for some time past has been, so far deprived of her reason and understanding, that she is unable and unfit, to govern herself, or manage her affairs to her own great detriment, and our manifest prejudice, and we being willing to take care of you the indemnity of her, the said Nancy N. Lambright, in this behalf Command you, that you diligently inquire, by the oaths of honest and lawful men of your bailiwick, by whom the truth of the matter may be better known, whether the said Nancy N. Lambright, be so far deprived of her understanding, that she is altogether unfit and unable to govern herself, or manage her affairs, as before stated, or not: and if she be, then from what time, and how long, and in what manner: and if she enjoys lucid intervals: and when the said Nancy N. Lambright, being in such condition, aliend any lands or tenements? and if so, then what lands, and what tenements, and where, and when? and to whom, and to what persons, and whose hands, or what person hands, the lands and tenements so aliened, are? and how, and in what manner and what lands and what tenements yet remain, and of whom
