

Amazons. January 2. 1772

Gentlemen. I am desirous of being admitted a Member of your honourable and worthy Club, the high Esteem, Respect & Veneration so universally bestowed on your Society has induced Me to follow the way honourable Mark of your Approbation I beg leave to assure the Club that I shall be truly sensible of the Favour conferred on Me by their Choice, and that I am
 Will Respectfully regard Gentlemen
 Your Most obedient Servant
 Sam. Chard

Original of the Declaration of the Letters and Injunctions of the Society and 1/5