No. 8569.

Wherefore, as well as for other good and sufficient reasons and objections to be made known at the hearing, the said Harry J. Bush excepts to the admissibility of the testimony aforesaid and prays that the said evidence may be excluded and expunged from the Record, reserving however unto himself, the said Harry J. Bush, the right and privilege to cross-examine any or all of said Witnesses, at his election, in the event the Court should overrule this aforegoing exceptions.

And he is duty, etc.

Stoner & Weinberg,
Solicitors

Opinion of Court.

Filed Jan. 21-1911

Annie Marie Deuel Hedges, et al. vs. Annie M. Hedges, Louisa C. Blum et al	No. 8569. Equity. In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity.

This is a Creditors' Bill for the purpose of obtaining a decree for the sale of the Real estate of Anna F. Deuel, deceased. It appears that the deceased was seized of two lots of ground, situated on the North side of West South Street in Frederick City, the title to which was obtained by the deeds duly exhibited with the bill; and by her will and Codicil, also exhibited. Her property was devised to the Plaintiff, Annie Marie Deuel Hedges, daughter of the testatrix, for life, with certain powers of disposition and reinvestment as to one of the properties. At the expiration of the life estate the testatrix bequeathed the proceeds of the sale of the properties in certain sums and proportions to the defendants, Louisa C. Blum, Eloise A. A. Bush, Justin Gower Bush, Harry J. Bush and Edwin C. Bush, the first of whom was a niece and the others grand-niece and grand-nephews, respectively, of the testatrix.

The Bill is filed by Annie Marie Deuel Hedges, Sophia Schroder, trading as F. Schroder, Dr. Thomas B. Johnson, Mt. Olivet Cemetery and Glenn O. Garber, and John L. Green, trading as Garber and Green, who sue for themselves and all other creditors of the decedent. It was alleged, and has been proven, that there is no personal estate, out of which the claims of the creditors can be paid. There is no objection to any of the claims except that of the first-named