NO. 8561 Equity.

4th.

That a brother of the said Eugene Trayer, named John Trayer, left the State of Maryland many years ago and has not been heard from or of for a long period of time, to wit, about fifteen (15) years, and that Your complainants do not know if the said John Trayer was married, or whether he left any widow surviving him if he is dead, or any descendants or descendants, as heirs at law, and if so, the names of the same and their residences are unknown to Your complainants, and that if the said John Trayer is living, he is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and when last heard of was residing in the State of Arizona.

5th.

That the said real estate described in Exhibit No. 1, is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated, and that in order to make division of said interests, it will be necessary that said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof be divided amongst the parties according their several interests.

6th.

That the said John Trayer, if living, is an adult above the age of twenty-one years.

7th.

That if the said John Trayer is dead, and left surviving him any infant child or children or infant descendants of such or children it would be to the benefit and advantage of such infants to sell the said real estate, and to invest the proceeds thereof in some productive fund for his, her or their benefit.

To the end, therefore,—

(A)

That a decree may be passed by your Honorable Court, for the sale of the said real estate described in Exhibit No. 1.

(B)

That the proceeds of such sale may be distributed amongst the parties entitled, according to their respective rights and interests.

(C)

And that Your Complainants may have such other and further relief as the nature of the case may require.

May it please Your Honors to grant unto Your Complainants the order of Publication, giving notice to the defendants John Trayer and — Trayer his wife
