

On Sunday Evening last died, of the Gout in his Lungs, in the 77th Year of his Age, ROBERT GORDON, Esq; who was for many Years a very reputable Inhabitant of this City, one of the Aldermen, and one of the Representatives for the same in the Lower House of Assembly; as also, one of the Judges of the Provincial Court, and one of the Commissioners of the Loan Office: He executed his public Trusts with Diligence and Integrity: In private Life he constantly maintain'd the Character of an honest Man, a quiet inoffensive Neighbour, a hearty sincere Friend, and a pleasant and agreeable Companion; and very deservedly had the Good Will, Respect, and Esteem, of all who knew him; and on Tuesday last in the Evening his Remains were honourably interr'd, the Funeral Sermon being delivered by the Rev. Mr. BACON, and Persons of all Ranks accompanying his Corps to the Grave.
