No. 8747. Equity.

gage is herewith filed as part hereof marked Exhibit No. 7.

7. That all of said parties, plaintiffs and defendants, are residents of Frederick County, Maryland, and all are over the age of twenty-one years, except the defendant John Reading Schley, who is an infant residing with his mother in said County.

8. That the said persons named as plaintiffs and defendant now hold all of the aforementioned real estate as tenants in common, subject to the said mortgage on part thereof held by said Savings Institution and the dower interest of the said Lillian F. Schley in the undivided interest of her deceased husband, the said Steiner Schley.

9. That the aforesaid real estate cannot be divided without loss and injury to the parties interested therein as above stated, and that in order to make division of said interests it will be necessary that the said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among them according to their respective interests.

10. To the end therefore

(1). That a decree may be passed for the sale of the said real estate,

(2). That the proceeds therefore may be distributed among the said parties according to their respective rights and interests, and,

(3). That your orators may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

11. May it please your Honors to grant unto your orators the writ of Subpoena directed to the said John Reading Schley, an infant, of Frederick County, and the said The Frederiktown Savings Institution, a body Corporate, of the said County, commanding them to be and appear in this Court on some day certain to be therein named, and answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.

And as in duty &c.
Clayton O. Keedy.
