No. 7318 Equity.

advanced, which assignment was ordered to be allowed to him or his personal representatives in the final settlement of the trust fund mentioned in these proceedings.

3. That your Petitioners are indebted unto the Central Bank of Rockville in the sum of six hundred and fifty dollars upon a certain promissory note which is dated May 16th A.D. 1911 and that the said William P. Mandeby Jr. in his individual capacity and not as Trustee, was a surety upon said note. That said note is overdue and unpaid and the said Bank has declined to allow your Petitioners to renew said note, without having additional security thereon and your Petitioners are unable to obtain said added security. That at the rate of interest on said note is six per cent per annum, and that your petitioners are totally unable to pay the principal sum due on said note. That in addition to the above mentioned note one of your Petitioners, the said William Anderson, is indebted unto said Bank upon his promissory note dated February 2nd. A.D. 1911 in the sum of seventy five dollars, payable six months after date, and that the said William P. Mandeby, Jr. did sign the same as surety, in his individual capacity, and not as Trustee. Mrs. Bell Mathews, Thomas Anderson and Jno. Anderson, the wife of the said William were the remaining sureties upon said note. That the rate of interest on said note is six per cent and the said William Anderson is totally unable to pay said principal sum due on said note.

4. That the said Eliza Turner makes her home with, and is dependent upon said William Anderson for her support and maintenance, and that therefore their interest in the income and ultimate disposition of said trust fund is a common interest and that the said Eliza Turner has no other estate of any description.

5. That the total amount of interest annually paid by your Petitioners upon the two notes aforesaid to the Central Bank is $42.50, and the total amount of income received by the said Eliza Turner upon the sum of $718.63 (which is the amount of the trust fund not heretofore assigned) at 5% is $35.92 and if in addition thereto the commission of ten per cent which a Trustee would be allowed is added it would make the total income of the said Eliza Turner $32.32 upon the remaining unpledged or unassigned portion of said trust fund.

6. That if your Petitioners can pay off said total indebtedness upon the two said notes, it would make a saving to them or to their common interest of about $11.18 annually and they would not be obliged to procure new sureties upon upon said notes or have said interest sold in the event the said bank should find it necessary to enter suit against your Petitioners and marg a lien upon their interest in said trust fund.

7. That both the said Eliza Turner and the said William Anderson are anxious and willing to have the whole of said trust fund applied to the payment of the aforesaid assignment to William
