No 8711. Equity.

4. That the said George C. Freshour, the husband of Hannah A. Freshour, departed this life on or about the 18th day of April, 1898.

5. That the property mentioned in "Exhibit A" has been vested since the death of the said George C. Freshour, and that the same is not susceptible of division between the complainants and the defendant in this cause without loss and injury, and that it would be to the interest, benefit and advantage of all the parties to this cause, especially to said infant, that the same should be sold and the proceeds divided among the parties thereunto entitled, after the payment of the costs of these proceedings and sale.

6. That said Ida M. Morgan having pre-deceased her mother, she dying intestate and the property and premises having vested as hereinbefore mentioned, left surviving her three children, to-wit: a daughter Stella Morgan, who inter-married with one Robert Dorsife; Minnie Morgan, a daughter, who intermarried with a certain Erasmus Eyler, and who are the complainants in this cause, and Sarah Steele Morgan, a daughter, who is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and who resides in Frederick County, Maryland.

To the end Therefore:—

(a) That the said real estate herein mentioned, may be decreed to be sold by an order of your Honorable Court, and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties thereunto entitled.

(b). That your orators may have such other and further relief as the nature and equity of their case may require.

May it please your Honors to grant unto your orators the writ of Subpoena in the usual form directed to the said Sarah Steele Morgan, infant, residing in Frederick County, State of Maryland, commanding her to be and appear in this Court on some day certain to be named therein, and to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed thereon.

And as in duty bound, etc.
