No. 8013 Equity.

business affairs of said Corporation after said forfeiture has been declared, except to wind up the affairs of said Corporation on contracts already entered into by it.

8. Your orator further avers that the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, on the 20th day of April A.D. 1906 upon the petition of your orator, appointed Messrs. Harry C. Kimball and Walter A. Johnston receivers to take charge of the assets of said defendant, the Builders' Supply Company, in the District of Columbia. The said defendant, the Builders' Supply Company, through its President, having admitted the averments of the bill and assenting to the immediate appointment of a receiver, and the assets of said Corporation in the District of Columbia have been turned over to and are in the custody of said receivers, who have duly qualified as such by giving bond approved by the Supreme Court District of Columbia. And your orator is further informed and believes that the said Builders' Supply Company is the owner of certain property in the City and County of Frederick, State of Maryland, known as the Cannon Hill property, which has certain machinery thereon, for the crushing of stone, of the value of Three Thousand dollars ($3000.); as your orator is informed and believes that the said defendant, Edward S. Eichelberger, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the Board of Directors as manager for said Corporation's affairs in the City and County of Frederick, State of Maryland, has received large sums of money from the sale of stone from said Company's plant located in said County aforesaid, and for material shipped to said Eichelberger as manager aforesaid from the City of Washington, District of Columbia, for all of which the said defendant Eichelberger has utterly failed to account to said Corporation. Although your orator, as a stockholder and officer of said Corporation, has repeatedly demanded from said defendant Eichelberger a statement of account of said sales so made as aforesaid.

10. That under the provisions of the law of the State of Delaware affecting Corporations, when any Corporation organized under said law may be dissolved, the Court, on application of any Creditor or Stockholder, may appoint some suitable person as receiver to take charge of the assets and effects and collect the debts and property of said Corporation and wind up its affairs.

11. That your orator is informed and believes that owing to the mismanagement of the affairs of said Corporation by the said defendants Holmes and Eichelberger, in their capacity as managers in the District of Columbia and in the City and County of Frederick, State of Maryland, the said Corporation has become and is
