No. 8013. Equity.

insolvent and unable to meet its obligations in full.

12. That as your orator is informed and believes the only assets of said company in the District of Columbia consist of a lot of cement of the value of about one thousand dollars ($1000.00) clean (11). horses, five (5) wagons, one (1) buggy, harness, etc., of the value of about one thousand dollars ($1000.00) and building material of the value of about five hundred dollars ($500.) That as to outstanding bills your orator is unable to give any information.

The premises considered, your orator therefore prays:

1. That the writ of subpoena may issue, directed to each of the above named defendants, requiring them to appear and make answer to the exigencies of this bill.

2. That a receiver or receivers may be appointed forthwith to take charge of the assets of said Corporation in the City and County of Frederick, State of Maryland, and hold and manage the same under the direction of this Court.

3. That the defendant Edward S. Eichelberger, may be enjoined from making any further and other contracts in the name of said Corporation, and that the said defendant Eichelberger may be required to render an accounting to this Court as manager of the affairs of said Corporation in the State of Maryland, and produce and deliver to the receiver or receivers appointed by this Honorable Court the books, contracts, choses in action or obligations of said Corporation which are in his custody or under his control.

4. That the defendant, Gilmore T. Holmes may be enjoined from making any further or other contracts in the name of said Corporation or from signing any checks, and that the said defendant Holmes may be required to render an accounting to this Court as manager of said Corporation aforesaid, and to produce and deliver to the receiver or receivers all books, contracts, choses in action or obligations which are in his custody or under his control; and that the contracts entered into by the said defendant, Gilmore T. Holmes, as manager, in his own name, be decreed the contracts, choses in action or obligations of said Corporation, and the books of said Corporation, to the receivers to be appointed by this Honorable Court