No 8013. Equity.

by your Honorable Court and that the property real and personal may be sold by them under the order and decree of your Honorable Court.

And for such other and further relief to which your Petitioner may be entitled.

And as in duty bound etc.

Jacob Rhorbaek
Solicitor for Gertrude A Stewarts.
Executor of the last will of Upton A. Stewarts.

On the aforegoing Petition, it is thereupon ordered by the Court on this 22nd day of May in the year 1906 that Gertrude A. Stewarts, Executrix of the last will and Testament of Upton Stewarts, be and she is hereby made a party Plaintiff, to the Bill of Complaint, with leave to adopt the same in so far as the facts have reference to her interests and in accordance with the facts in her said Petition stated.

John C. Motter.

Petition of Walter A. Johnston and Jacob Rhorbaek, Receivers, and Counts Order thereon.

Filed May 26-1906

To the Honorable the Judges of said court:—

The Petition of Walter A. Johnston and Jacob Rohrbaek Receivers, respectfully represents unto your Honors:—

1 That they have acted upon the order of your Honorable Court heretofore passed in this Cause and have advertized for public sale all of the real estate, and personal property of the said Winders Spring Company the same being advertised in "The Daily News" a newspaper published in Frederick County, Maryland, the day of sale being so advertized for the date May 28th 1906.

2 That since the said advertisement was inserted in said Newspaper, Gilmore T. Holmes, one of the Defendants has filed an answer to the Bill of Complaint, contained,

3 That your Petitioners believe that under the circumstances it is inadvisable to offer said real and personal property for sale pending the determination of the issues raised by the said Holmes in his said Answer.

Wherefore your Petitioners pray that your Honors, will pass the order of your Honorable Court authorizing and directing your Petitioners to continue said offer of sales
