

Mayor McKeldin Buys A New Home Sun

Mayor McKeldin yesterday bought a new home for $36,000 at 203 Paddington road and expects to move from his present residence, 322 St. Dunstons road, about May 15. The purchase was made from Col. Louis H. Frohman.

Lest anybody think he has $35,000 tucked away somewhere, the Mayor said he intends to sell the St. Dunstons road home and "this will pay most of the cost of the house I'm moving into." He said he expects to carry a mortgage of about $11,000.

A member of the Mayor's staff said he should have the mortgage paid off in a year provided revenues from speeches continue at their present rate. The Mayor's weekly income from speeches during the past several weeks has ranged from $200 to nearly $500. His charge is from $50 to $300, plus expenses, depending on the place and occasion.

APR. 1 - 1947
He lost money for a time. While he was considering whether he would seek another term, he declined all invitations to speak, knowing he would need much time for campaigning. However, when he decided not to be a candidate he started receiving engagements.