4th Did the books not disclose the fact that he was only a salesman for the Company or did you not examine them carefully enough to discover this?

Ans:- The books did not show in what capacity. He was employed & in fact the Books were so muddled. We got an order of the Court for experts, to examine them and state the accounts.

5th You have stated that you had made a cursory examination of the Books you mean to say that you made such an examination of the Books of the Builders Supply Co?

Ans. We examined into every book of the Co., that was turned over to us. but it was impossible to arrive at a perfectly clear understanding of the affairs of the Co.,

6th x. You have stated that under an order of the Court the books had been turned over to an expert accountant. They have not as yet made their report have they?

Ans. - No. Sir

7th x Did you examine the Stock Ledger Book?

Ans S. did not

8th x Did you examine the Stock Certificate Book?

Ans. I had one Book-turned over to me which I think was a Stock transfer book, in which there were no entries. I don't think I've seen a Stock certificate Book of this company.

9th. By the certificate produced by you, purporting to be from the Secretary of State of Delaware, marked "E. J. C". I notice that the Builders Supply Co. may be restored to its Corporate rights and franchises at any time within two years from the 7th day of February 1906. Do you know whether or not any steps have been taken to in any wise restore its former status?

Ans I do not

10th Do you mean to say you do not know whether steps have or have not been taken?

Ans. I do not know?

11th your only source of information with reference to the affairs of the Company is the Books and papers which have been turned over to you as receivers. is that right?

Ans That and this employee of the office.
