7th Are there any other entries in said Secretarys book than the items mentioned? (Excepted to)

Ans Not that I recall.

Said book as referred to by Mr. Eichelberger is now filed as an Exhibit marked ("B. S. Co. Minute Book") which is done and it is so marked.

8 of what does the property of said Co. in this County consist?-

Ans. So far as I am able to enumerate, never having been the Manager of the Company or charged with the control of its property, the property here consists as follows - Real Estate hereinbefore referred to, Crushing Plant, Consisting of an anderson Crusher, Engine and Boiler, and an Ingersoll & Sergeant Steam Drill, Fittings for firing Blasts, Picks, Bars, Shovels, Barrows, and various tools. Together with an easement granted by Reed, from Sarah Merriman a Blacksmith bellows & forge. The above list is as I recollected as of December 1904. The conditions of the property and the tools I cannot speak of since that time.

9th Were there any there any further Directors meetings than those written out in the Book, Exhibit "B. S. Co. Minute Book?

Ans. My recollection is that that there minutes of several meetings written on pieces of paper & placed in the book, when it went out of my possession, nearly 2 years ago I think. I am not positive as to the about but it is my best recollection. There was another meeting somewhere in the early Spring of 1905. of which I did not keep. the Minute Book. had been kept in Washington & the whole management of the Co. seemed to rest in the Directors residing there.

10th. Look at the Papers now shown you marked Exhibit "P. M. S" (hereunto filed with the Examiner and are so marked). Exceptions is made to filing of said Exhibits by Mr Boyd). + state if the minutes referred to by you. and not recorded in the Minute Book.

Ans. No Sir - They purport to be the minutes of the meeting of the early Spring of 1905, but are not the minutes purporting to be set forth in this Exhibit.

Adjourned until Saturday July 7th 1906. at eleven O'Clock A.M., and met pursuant to adjournment at the office
