No. 8013. Equity.

ans. Not that I heard of.
Not I attended all of them. There would have been no Quorum without me. I missed one meeting.
41x. Are you not aware of the fact that the scope + volume of the business of the Company has been extended and enlarged each year + the equipment increased to meet the new demands?—
and that the surplus + profits of the Company were being used in this way, rather than being distributed as dividends?—
ans. I have no personal knowledge on that subject; for that last year + a half, up to that time I know there had been some increase in the extent of the operation.
42x as a practical man of affairs don't you know it to be a fact, that when a corporation or an individual engaged in a new enterprise like the Builders Supply Co. did at its organization, that as a rule no profits at all are made during the first few years of such enterprise?—

Excepted to.

ans. Yes: Sir—

Cont. Cross Int. By the General Interrogatory
ans. In my answer to a question in chief as to the liabilities of the Co. here I omitted to state that there is some accounts due me. The exact amount of which I am at present unable to give, but a detailed list of which I will furnish the Examiner to be filed as an Exhibit at one week meeting.

Edw. S. Eichelberger

Adjourned until July 18 1906 and examination resumed at one o'clock P.M. at office of Jacob Rohrbach Esquire. Mr. Fred Frew a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Plaintiff being first duly sworn deposes and says as follows:
1st State your name, age residence + occupation?
ans. Fred Frew. 37 yrs old. I reside in Washington D.C.? I am a Contractor.
2nd Are you a Stockholder in the Builders Supply Co. of Washington D.C.? ans. Yes Sir— (Excepted to) 3d When did you become a stockholder + please state the No of shares held by you?— (Ex to)
ans. It has been about 3 yrs ago since I became a stockholder. I hold 10 shares of the Company's stock.