the Desk during the day?
Ans. Yes. He was working on them Sometimes during the Day.
37x He would sometimes leave the office. would he lock?
Ans. Yes.
38x The Books and Papers would be there between outs
Ans. In the office. Yes Some of them would be in his desk.
^ that locked.
39x Don't you know as a general rule none of their Books be locked up when he would go out?
Ans. When he was out for any length of time he always took his desk. he didn't leave that open.
40x But the Books of acct were not locked up there were they?
Ans. I don't know I never examined the Books at all.
41x They were there you could have examined them had you wanted to.
Ans. If they were there. I could if I had wanted.
Yes: Sir.
42x Mr Sheehan had the Same access to these Books I suppose?
Ans. Yes Sir. I suppose so. he was in the same room with me.
43x Did you provide a Bookkeeper?
Ans. I believe Mr Holmes hired a young man for a while to help on the Books.
44x Wasnt that young man more of a type writer & office Boy than a Book Keeper?
ans. I didnt believe he had a type writer where he was there.
45x. Isnt it a fact that you and Mr. Sheehan objected to paying him a sufficient salary to retain a Book Keeper?
Ans. No Sir - Mr Holmes was to take care of all Books ^ be the Book Keeper.
46x. Why do you say he was to take care of all Books ^ be the Book Keeper?
ans. It was his own proposition
47x Don't you know it to be a fact that after the Volume of this business grew. Mr. Holmes desired to employ a book-keeper so that he might.
Ans. Yes: Sir:-
devote his time ^ attention to the more important affairs of the Company and that you & Mr. Sheehan would not permit him to do so which would promote a Book keeper?
and this is the reason why Mr Holmes had to take the books home to work on them at night?
Ans: No: Sir:- I didn't object to a Book-keeper at all Mr. Holmes had plenty of time to keep those Books n/e
