NO. 8,013. Family.

94x You have known & now know that the Character has been restored on the payment of the State tax. Do you not?-

Ans. Yes Sir.-

95x Do you know whether any steps have been taken to restore that character?-

Ans. No Sir I don't know of any such steps.

96x You said that you & Mr. Sheehan paid for your respective blocks of stock in cash isn't it a fact that you gave your note for your stock at the time it was issued?-

Ans. I didn't know about Mr. Sheehan exactly if I remember correctly. I put my note in the Central Nat. Bank for $1000.00 that it placed to my Credit & gave Mr. Holmes a check for my stock.

97x Isn't it a fact that the Second National Bank at that time declined to discount your note?- (Ex to)

Ans. No.

98x At the time of the issue of this stock did the 2d Nat. Bank not refuse to discount your note and then you gave your note to the Company & it was accepted by the Company for the stock & about 10 days thereafter you had your note discounted by the Central Nat. Bank & by that means paid the note which was previously given to the Company for your 10 shares of stock? (Ex. to)

Ans. I never had any dealings with the 2d Nat. Bank at all. & I never asked for a discount there. With reference to paying for the stock I remember when the stock was issued giving them my check for $1000.00 I do not remember anything about a note given to the Builders Supply Co. for the stock.

99x Do you know if Mr. Sheehan gave his note for his stock?

Ans. No. Sir - I don't know.

100x The acct of the Builders Supply Co was originally opened at the Central Nat'l Bank, at your request. Was it not & that being your Bank? (Ex to)

Ans. No. Sir — I remember taking Mr. Holmes down there and introducing him there at the Bank at his request.

101x And don't you know that Mr. Holmes desired to be introduced there so that on behalf the Builders Supply Co. he could offer your note for discount which had been given by you in payment for your stock. the 2nd Nat. Bank having refused to discount it. when presented by Mr. Holmes on behalf of the Company. (Ex to)
